The steamer Americus of the Long Branch line broke her shaft yesterday morning, two miles below the Narrows. The passengers were greatly excited, but were soon placed on board the Mattawan, the Keyport boat, which had come to their assistance. The Americus was towed to her dock in the North Biver by two tugboats.

Capt. Lowe, Mr. Copeland, Mr. Robinson, Mr. Ashton and other members of the United States com mission appointed to investigate the theories of boiler explosions, visited Sandy Hook yesterday to continue their work, but the water had frozen in some of the pipes connected with the boilers, and ruptured them. No further experiments will be made till the return of warm wather.

The raising of the ferry-boat Delaware on Thursday night was a wonderful achievement. The steamer was completely submerged in the North River at the feet of Canal-st., and the process of raising it was performed in 15 minutes. Four tugs were employed for several days, and at the appointed time two wrecking punps were connected, throwing out 40,000 gallons of water a minute, which performed the required work.

Here is a significant statistical note. The Police Captains report that the number of persons ap. plying for lodgings at the station-houses has greatly plying for lodgings at the station-houses has greatly increased during the past formight, and is far in excess of the same periodiact year. A majority of the applicants are apparently from a higher grade of society than those who usually seek such an asylum. An effort is made by the Captains to provide shelter for the unfortunate poor rather than for vagrants and drunkards. There were 64 men and boys and 240 women and girls in the station-houses of the duty on Thursday night; on the corresponding night in 1872 there were 436, the inserence this year being 448.

BROOKLYN. William Finnegan, a clerk in the New-York Post-Office, was arrested, yesterday, for abandoning his wife and child, who reside at No. 472 Warren-st.

The Financial Committee of the Common Council passed on Thursday evening bills amounting to 25,112 05, for removing dead animals; they also author-seed the appropriation of $5,000 for salary deficiency, and audited Police bills for $500.

An unknown woman entered a liquor store at Raymond et. and Lafayette-ave., at 7 p. m. on Thursday, and asked for some whisky. After drinking it she set down in front of the stove, when the proprietor in-formed her that she could not remain on the premises. She replied, "I don't care; I've got no other home to go to." She soon after left the place, and resterday morn-ing was found died in an empty peddler's wagon at No. 14 Carli-st.

Alexander Studwell, a stockholder in the Brooklyn City Gas Company, testified, on Thursday evening, before the Special Committee of the Board of Addresses on the Manufacture of Gas, that in 1857 he invested $1,000 in the stock of that Company, and that the segregate dividends in 16 years on a total outlay of only H,274 20, had amounted to $12,632 51. The gentleman thought that gas could be manufactured from naphtha as low as $0 cents per 1,000 feet.

Comins of New-York, who is charged with having been implicated in the abortion which resulted in the death of Ida W. Vali on Sept. 5. which resulted in the death of Ida W. Vali on Sept. 5, and moved that the plea of not guilty, which had been entered the day previous by Col. Charles S. Spencer, also of counsel for the defendant, might be withdrawn, but Judge Hoffman refused to grant the motion, and ordered the other defendants in the case to file their special pleas immediately... The Board of Finance, at its meeting held Thursday night, received from its Committee of Finance a statement that the funds were in such a condition as to leave it undecided as to the proper course to pursue in relation to the payment of salaries. Because of the financial stringency it had been found impossible to sell the bonds of the city, and the committee was in favor of paying salaries of the different departments which had not been paid for September; but the Mayor objects to the signing of say more warrants on the ground that moneys now in the Treasury were received from the collection of taxes, and should be held to meet future obligations arising from the expenditures of the various departments. Wim. A. Lewis, Corporation Counsel, submitted to the Board an opinion in relation to the disposition of the funds on hand. He said that until such times as a suitable market can be found for the sale of these bends, it is better to use the taxes coming in, although levied for the ensuing year, and thereby save the city from bankraptcy, than to heard up the money now being paid in to meet future obligations and contingencles. After the reading of this opinion, the Board passed a resolution that the Committee on Finance be authorized to pay the salaries of the Board of Public Works for September... The salary of the City Controller was reduced to $1.000, the order to take effect Dec I.... LECTURES AND MEETINGS.

Miss Kate Field will read passages from Dickens's works in her lecture at the Bedford-ave. Re-formed Church, Brooklyn, E. D., on Monday night.

Edward Eggleston gave readings last evening at Association Hall. He began with a description of the Hoosier country and people, and the peculiarities of their dialect. His selections were all taken from the "Hoosier Behoolmaster," and were generally of a humorous character. He interspersed his readings with smay stories, related in such a manner as to cause his frequent interruption by laughter and applicate.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

WASHINGTON, Friday, Nov. 14, 1873. Mr. Spofford, Librarian of Congress, having submitted to Solicitor Sponce of the Post-Office Department the question whether the first paragraph of the copyright act, approved July 8, 1870, requiring Postmasters to give receipts for copyright matter for transmission through the mails, has been repealed by the act abolishing the the mails, has been repealed by the act abolishing the franking privilege, that officer has rendered an opinion deciding in the negative, and says "the first paragraph of the 76th section is a well-devised security to the proprieter of the copyright, to protect him in case of accidents in the mail from the penalties imposed by the 94th section." The 94th section imposes a penalty of $25 for not mailing a copy of the book, photograph, or whatever the article copyrighted may be, to the Librarian of Congress. Postmasters are to be governed by this, and give receipts for all copyright matter received.

Between $5,000,000 and $5,000,000 of National Bank cir ulation is promised to persons who have not yet organ ized banks. The delay in some cases) is in the making of the plates upon which to print the notes, but it arises more frequently from the desire) of the bank projectors more frequently from the desire) of the bank projectors to take advantage of the deciline in Government securities, so that the bonds necessary to be deposited, in order to secure the circulation, may be obtained as cheaply as possible. The opinion has been quite general that the insolvency of so many National Banks would create a demand for the notes by persons desiring to purchase them in order to organize new National Banks, but the Controller of the Currency has received no additional applications for new organizations on this account.

The Northern Chayennes and Arrapahoes had a talk with the President this morning, protesting against the decision of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, that they must go upon the Reservation in the Indian Territory, with their Southern brethren. in accordance with their treaty, made with Gen. Sherman in 1868. The President received the Indians in a friendly manner, and endeavored to impress them with the belief that it would be for their interest to remove, as the whites were even now crowding them out; but told them firmly, that the position of Commissioner Smith, as made known to them yesterday, must be sustained. must go upon the Reservation in the Indian Territory

The report of the Controller of the Currency will soon finished, and will be longer than ever before. No suggestions looking toward free banking will be offered, the Controller taking ground against such a proposition. His remedy for averting fluancial panics is to have Congress authorize the Government to issue certificates, caring interest at the rate of three per cent, which are to take the place of the legal reserve new neld by banks for the security of their depositors, these certificates to be convertible upon presentation at the Treasury. He claims that such certificates would prevent the banks loaning their reserve, which is now so generally the Application was to-day made beforel the Supreme Court for the allowance of a writ of error to bring up from the Supreme Court of Georgia the case of Malone agt, the State. The application is based upon the re fusal of the Court to continue the case on the application fusal of the Court to continue the case on the application of the accused, because of the absence of important witnesses, and because the jury in his case was composed of white persons exclusively, to the exclusion of colored, under a law of the State passed, as alleged, for the purpose of excluding colored citizens from the jurybox, in violation of the Fourteenth Amendment.

The falling off of the revenue will impose upon the Sovernment the necessity of securing increased reccipts, and the opinion held among Treasury officials is, that Congress will be asked to obtain it from the surplus wealth of the country, through a tax upon incomes, or in any event, by imposing additional duties upon imported brandles and wines, or on manufactured spirits at home, through ducreased internal revenue tax. The Secretary of the Transury stated to-day that he did not know how much additional revenue would be needed. know how much additional revenue would be needed, but that a more definite knowledge in that respect would be obtained after the panic had subsided.

The suspension of improvements, such as the extension of old roads and the building of new ones, as contemplated by many railroad companies, has interfered considerably with the design of the Postmaster-General to create an extensive and first-class mail service, especially in the South and West. During October last, mail service was created over 800 miles of new road. This month the service will not be extended 100 miles.

The President has designated the revenue vessels Ac tive, Boutwell, Campbell, Colfax, Dobbin, Grant, Ham ilton, McCuiloch, Moccasin, Mosswood, and Woodbury to cruise along the coast of the United States during the severe Winter season, for the purpose of rendering aid to vessels in distress.

Judge A. G. Miller of the United States District Court of Wisconsin has tendered his resignation, under th act of April 15, 1869, authorizing any Unifed States Judge to be retired from active service after reaching the age of 70, and having served ien years on the bench.

MURDERERS' CHANCES.

THE THORNDIKE MURDER TRIAL. BELFAST, Me., Nov. 14 .- This is the fifth day of the trial of the Thorndike murder case. Sheriff Norton testified to finding a letter in the jail office, addressed to the prisoner, purporting to have been written by a man who confesses to the murder of the Gordon family. The theory of the prosecution is, that the prisoner was its author. The remainder of the forenoon oner was its author. The remainder of the forenoen was occupied by the testimony of experts as to his handwriting.

This afternoon the testimony was principally confined to the appearance of blood upon the prisoner's clothing after his arrest. His shirt and waistoost were exhibited to the jury. The anonymous letters offered yesterday were innily excluded, but the one found in the jali was admitted as evidence and read. The statement made and signed by the accused at the coroner's inquest was also put into the case. It is rambling and contradictory, and fails to account for his conduct at the time of the tragedy in not attempting to rescue the family, or make inquiry for their safety. At 4 c'clock the testimony for the State was completed, and the Court adjourned for the day.

THE UDDERZOOK CASE. THE UDDERZOOK CASE,

WEST CHESTER, Penn., Nov. 14 .- Mr. Pardue, counsel for Udderzook, has filed two additional reasons for a new trial, namely, that the court erred in per mitting a photograph to be used in identifying Wilson as Goss, and identifying the remains found as Goss; and also that the verdict was against the weight of the evidence.

BUSINESS PROSPECTS.

EXTENSION GRANTED TO A PITTSBURGH BANKING HOUSE.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 14 .- A meeting of the creditors of Ira B. McVey & Co., bankers, who suspended a few days ago, was held to-day. The statement of the affairs of the company shows their liabilities to be $152,943 34, and their assets $517,659 73. SOME HONEST CONFESSIONS.

THE ONLY SUCCESSFUL TICKET.

From The Albany Experis (Rep.)

Before election we were sanguine that the Republicans would carry the State. After election we were convinced, and so expressed ourselves, that the Democrats had carried it. But it seems that we were wrote every time. Lorde is logic; figures will not lie; and we cannot find it in our hearts to spoil a good story for relationship's sake. The fact is, then that neither the Democratic ticket nor the Republican ticket is elected; the Liberal ticket has been chosen.

The election of Messrs, Hopkins and Platt will be claimed as a Liberal Republican victory, and we suppose we may as well concede this much to them, and admit that in this election the 8,000 votes east by them in the State constituted the balance of power. It cannot be said of them that they died and left no sign.

NEW-YORK STATE BOARD OF CHARITIES. ALBANY, Nov. 14 .- A meeting of the State Board of Charities was held in this city to-day, who a full attendance. The time was devoted mainly to the selection of persons as visitors to the institutions, and the preparation of rules and regulations for their guidance under the act of 1873. Selections were made in Kings, New-York, Suffolk, Orange, Wyoming and other counties. The next meeting of the Board will be held in this city December 27.

YELLOW FEVER NOTE.

The Young Men's Christian Association of this city acknowledges the receipt of additional contributions for the yellow fever sufferers, amounting to $84, making a total of $4,263 08. Vincent Colyer telegraphs to the Association that Shreveport, like Memgraphs to the Association that Shreveport, has a who pairs, lost by yellow fever nearly one-third of those who remained there; 200 died, of whom 750 were white and 150 colored. The Shreveport officials say thay need no more aid. The fever in Marshall, Texas, was very malignant, 50 out of 75 sick persons having died. In the remaining population of 500 there have been no new cases in some days, and no further help is required. Reports from Calvert, Texas, nie equally encouraging.

MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENT ANALYZED. At a meeting of the Liberal Club last evening, in Plimpton Hall, Simon Sterne delivered a lecture upon "Municipal Government." From a description o incient cities the lecturer passed to towns of recent origin and growth, and finally drifted into the thick twosphere of the municipality of New-York. The cities of antiquity, said he, varied much from the municipal organizations of to-day, and the cities of the middle ages were of an entirely different character from those of ancient towns. Mr. Sterne reviewed the history of the ancient towns. Mr. Sterne reviewed the history of the charters of New-York, from the one first granted in 1857, to the charter of 1878, and the evils of the present were, he said, that there were no clear lines where State interference begins and ends. The administrative functions are taken away from the Board of Aldermen, and the city is, from year to year at the mercy of the Legislature. Mr. Sterne concluded by saying that it was a currous fact that the government of every country eventually falls into the hands of the leisure class, and in America there was no leisure class, except those who are too victous or too lary to work.
